

Roy's Monday evenings

16 January 2012

On Monday 16 January 2012 we started once again at a new location: Café De Paardenstal at Oudenbosch. De café has multiple rooms. We danced in the room behind the entrance. The entire floor of the room can be used to dance, unlike our previous location, where the dance floor was approx. 25 m² and around the dance floor there was carpet.

After a 4-week recess We hit it off with 'Lazy' - Guyton Mundy and 'Bring me sunshine'. Then Roy taught us 2 new dances: 'Johnny got a Boom Boom' from Darren Bailey and 'Backstreet' from Henrik Grönvold. Two smooth dances to upbeat music.

We danced: 'It's a man's world', 'Dance Dance Dance' and 'Soul lovin' and after that Roy taught us another 2 new dances: a night club two step: 'Tonight' from Kelli Haugen and a cha cha cha: 'On my Way' from Benny Ray.

We rehearsed the 4 new dances a few times and Roy played 'Shake it' from Guyton Mundy and 'Slippery' from Roy himself.

It was nice to get started again after 4 weeks and we really worked hard. So thank you Roy and see you all next time!
