

Look everyone, he's coming through the door! And was he in the mood tonight!!!

We started with 'Lazy' – Guyton Mundy, followed by 'Soul Lovin'- Roy Verdonk (<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QkON9Jk4aJY>). He had to walk through the dance, because with some of us the steps didn't come to mind right away. Then he played 'Alabama Slamming' - Rachael McEnaney, one of the new dances from last week. He rushed on to 'Dance, Dance, Dance' - Wil Bos & Roy Verdonk and 'This is a man's world' – also choreographed by the man himself (<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Hw4dmad4Eb4>). He (and so did we) peaked with 'Day Dreams' – again choreographed by Roy & Wil (<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=cHrpJSOXC04>).

Christina rehearsed 'Devotion' - Maggie Ghallager in some slower pace so we could catch our breath. But that was just temporary, because Roy was on the move and kept us going with 'Bright Lights'- Darren Bailey & Raymond Sarlemijn, 'Make Love' – Raymond Sarlemijn and 'Soul Food'- Lorenzo 'Golo' Evans (<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MH50VxkRuS4>).

Roy practiced 'The Flute' – Maggie Ghallager and 'Bring me Sunshine'- Darren Bailey & Roy Verdonk (<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CqVOv26kjRY>). Then he played a golden oldie: 'Angie', a great dance! The pace of the dance is suitable to stretch your steps, so it feels smooth and easy going. And last but not least, we danced 'Sunset Mambo' – Daniel Whittaker.

It was an utter, utter, utter..... evening!!! Thanks and goodbye!
