

Roy's Monday evenings

31 oktober 2011

Today was the first of 3 Monday's that Christina is our teacher for the social dance classes. She did very well if I may say so. We danced some older dances from last year like 'Walking in the rain', 'Knee deep' (this one did not go quit all right) and 'Jesse James' (also took a few walls before we remembered the steps).

Christina taught us 'The Flute' and 'Chicka Chicka Boom Boom' (a newcomers dance). Some of us already knew 'The Flute' but that was no problem.

After she rehearsed the dances Roy taught us the last couple of weeks, Christine repeated the two new dances en finished with 'Slippery' and 'Shake it'. Next week she is going to teach us 'Devotion'.

I can't speak for everyone but I think we had a very good time. Thank you Christina for your hard work!
